DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

1. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because claim 9 calls for a program on a data carrier. A claim would be functional and statutory for example if it had a computer readable medium, the program is not on a computer readable medium, so the claim is not statutory. According to the 101 intern guidelines of patent applications for patentable subject matter eligibility (starting on page 50), a program for instance needs to be on a computer readable medium. The claimed program needs to be stored or encoded on a computer readable medium, and thus the claim is not statutory. See Diehr, 450 U.S. at 191, 209 USPQ at 10 and Benson, 409 U.S. at 71-72, 175 USPQ at 676.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
